

CHRISTINA J. TZIALLA

Christina Tziella was born in Ioannina of Epirus (Greece) in 1988 and lives in Athens.

She is Theatrologist, Actor-Performer, Theater Educator and Play Writer.

She is a graduate of the Department of Theatrical Studies of the School of Fine Arts of the University of Peloponnese, directed by Acting - Directing. She is also a graduate of the P.M.T.P. Professional School of Musical Theater. She participated in the Workshop of Alumni Actors' Training at Drama School of Theatro Technis "Karolos Koun". In 2022 she completed a wide series of seminars on "Interactive Fiction" at the University of Patras.

She has written three theatrical books. She performed numerous roles in the theater as an actor, as well as a Performer - Dancer. At the same time, she starred in 5 short films. She worked in Inspirational Musical Theater Play and Theatrical Education. She served as a responsible for the Organization of Analogio at the Municipal Theater of Piraeus.

She is a founding member and Curator of Theatrical Department of Cultural Association for Art and Nature "NARTURA". She is a member of the Association of Greek Actors.

In November 2019 she founded the cultural enterprise, with innovative approaches, with the distinctive title "Kalliergon", based in Neochori Lefktron in Western Mani (Messenia-Peloponnesus-Greece).