

Vasiliki Kateri was born in Ioannina of Epirus (Greece) in 1967 and lives in West Mani, Peloponnese.

She is Visual Artist and CEO of Kalliergon. She is a graduate of The North College of Ioannina, Abertay Dundee University, as an Interior Designer.

She has held many solo and group art exhibitions in Greece and abroad. Recently, artwork has been exhibited in a permanent exhibition at the Museum of Ali Pasha and the Revolutionary Period, on the island of Pamvotis Lake in Ioannina.

She has augmented many successful, innovative ideas that have enhanced the cultural scene, in collaboration with various cultural and public institutions, as well as charitable organizations. She has been Chairman of the Epirotes' Association of Messinia. She has been also a Member of "House of Literature and Art of Epirus" and a Member of "Theatrical Laboratory of Epirus." She is member of Association "DIAZOMA". Vasiliki is the founder and chairman of the Board of Directors of the Cultural Association for Art & Nature known as "NARTURA", running it since 2017.

In January 2019 she was honored for her contribution, by the Women's Association of Mani, which is based in Kalamata.